Pozdravljeni!

Za nami je dramatično leto, ki ga je bilo mogoče slutiti že na zadnjem festivalu, saj je bil ta izjemno angažiran in politično obarvan. Skušal je ujeti odpor proti obstoječim neravnovesjem v družbi, tako ekonomskim kot socialnim; kot nekakšen poklon delavstvu in vstaja nemirov.

Slednji še vedno prežemajo širni svet, a zdi se, kot da smo se zdaj znašli ujeti v negotovem zatišju in nezaupanju v prihodnost. V nekakšnem vmesnem prostoru, kjer se skušamo redefinirati skozi prelivanje identitet, iskanje novih izhodišč in zavezništva.

Letošnji program odseva prav to: zavedanje, da preprostih rešitev ni, a da je pomembno, da jih iščemo skupaj. Da ustvarjamo prostore, ki opogumljajo to poroznost, soočanja, preigravanja, ne samo v prehajanju žanrov, temveč tudi vztrajnem brisanju mej med akterji in občinstvom. Zanimajo nas vsi tisti vmesni prostori, kjer lahko na primer glasba v različnih oblikah komunicira z drugimi žanri, raziskuje, nas prežema, se igra. Prostori, kjer se ples spogleduje s svetlobo, kjer naturščiki zamenjujejo vloge z igralci, kjer umetnost ustvarja prav tisto neravnovesje, ki je nujno za vzpostavljanje novega ravnotesja in ekologije odnosov.

Vabljeni, da se nam pridružite nekje vmes in da skupaj zatresemо svet!

Nevenka Koprivšek

Greetings to all!

The year gone by has been a very dramatic one indeed. In retrospect, it seems as if last year's festival programme somehow anticipated the future with its restless spirit and vivid politically and socially engaged content. On one hand, it caught the wind of resistance against social and economic imbalances as it paid tribute to the working class, while on the other hand also providing a backdrop for the upcoming protests. Even though resistance still goes on living its global life in the present day, it nevertheless feels like we've gotten trapped in some kind of uncertain tranquillity and disbelief in the future. Trapped in an in-between space of some sort, inhabited by our efforts to rearticulate ourselves through more fluid identities in search of new premises and alliances.

And that is exactly what the forthcoming festival programme reflects: acknowledgment of the fact that there is no such thing as a simple solution and that it is therefore all the more important to look for alternatives together. To create spaces which encourage this porosity, confrontations and playfulness – not only in-between different art forms, but also in the constant erasure of borders between various actors and audiences.

Our interests lie in those specific in-between spaces that allow, for example, for the vivid interaction between music and other genres. Where exploration and play can come into being, where we can see dance flirt with light, where ordinary people can exchange roles with performers. Our interests lie in those in-between spaces where art can propel the creation of imbalances, crucial for the re-creation of new balances and new ecology of relations.

Do join us somewhere in-between and lets shake it together!

OTVORITEV FESTIVALA

Vabljeni, da se nam 22. avgusta ob 21. uri pridružite na Muzejski ploščadi Metelkova, kjer bomo odprli 16. mednarodni festival Mladi levi. Po otvoritvenemu nagovoru se boste lahko prepustili kozmopolitski glasbi belgijske skupine Zita Swoon. Glasbenikom se bo pridružil plesalec skupine Rosas Simon Mayer v koreografiji Anne Terese De Keersmaeker.

Glasba bo zaznamovala tudi preostanek večera, sledil bo mladolegovski ples ob ritmih DJ-a teoPa (Belo Smetje). Za prizike bodo poskrbele kuharice Dnevnega centra aktivnosti za starejše.

OPENING OF THE FESTIVAL

You're kindly invited to join us on the 22nd of August at 9 pm at the Metelkova museum platform, where the 16th international Mladi levi festival will open its doors. The opening speech will be followed by the cosmopolitan music of the Belgian band Zita Swoon, while a dancer of the Rosas group, Simon Mayer, will be performing choreography devised by Anna Teresa De Keersmaeker. The rest of the evening will most certainly revolve around music as well, leading to the traditional Mladi levi dance to beats spun by DJ teoP (Belo Smetje). Ladies from the Activity Centre for the Elderly will be in charge of snacks.

VRTEC, SKUPINA LEVČKI

Kotiček Stare mestne elektrarne – Elektro Ljubljana bo v času festivala spremenjen v prav poseben vrtec. Otrokom od prvega do desetega leta starosti zagotavljam varstvo med vsemi predstavami v Stari mestni elektrarni – Elektro Ljubljana. Vrtec odpremo uro pred predstavo in zapremo uro po predstavi. Prostovoljci bodo poskrbeli, da bo varstvo zabavno, igrivo, ustvarjalno in vsebinsko raznoliko ter da Levčki ne bodo žejni ali lačni.

Varstvo je brezplačno, prosimo za predhodno napoved vsaj dan prej na: anamarija.prelogar@gmail.com oziroma 040 866 684.

KINDERGARTEN, LION CUBS

A corner in the Stara mestna elektrarna – Elektro Ljubljana will be transformed into a very special kindergarten during the festival period. Child care service will be provided for children between the ages of one and ten during all the performances in the Stara mestna elektrarna – Elektro Ljubljana. The kindergarten will open one hour before the performance and close one hour after. Festival volunteers will make sure that the babysitting time is fun, playful, creative and diverse in content, while ensuring that lion cubs are neither thirsty nor hungry.

The children's care service is free of charge, we merely ask that all interested parents notify us at least one day in advance by writing to anamarija.prelogar@gmail.com or calling +386 40 866 684.

PROSTOVOLJNI PRISPEVKI

Veliko je govora, zisanega in še več obljubljenega, o zagotavljanju pravice do kulturnih vsebin, še zlasti v času krize. Želimo si, da bi bili naši dogodki dostopni vsem. Konec avgusta bodo kakovostne umetniške vsebine na voljo tudi tistim, ki si tega ne bi mogli privoščiti, saj bodo tudi letos vstopnice brezplačne. Ker verjamemo v vzajemnost in solidarnost, obiskovalce hkrati naprošamo, da prispevajo po svojih zmožnostih in tako pripomorejo k uresničevanju pravice ne samo do konzumiranja, ampak tudi do produkcije kulturnoumetniških vsebin.

VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS

Recently, much has been said, written and promised about ensuring the right to cultural content, especially in these difficult times of crisis. And since we would like our events to be accessible to everyone and to see the end of August bursting with quality artistic content, including for people who wouldn't otherwise be able to afford it, we've decided to continue with our free ticket policy. Since we firmly believe in reciprocity and solidarity, we also kindly ask visitors to contribute as much as they can, according to their own means, and thus help us exercise not only the right to consume, but also the right to produce cultural and artistic content.

• Dialog med glasbo in gibom

Zita Swoon, ena najpopularnejših belgijskih rock skupin, se je v neskončnem toku revitalizacij postopoma preoblikovala v večstransko podjetje z imenom Zita Swoon Group, ki deluje na nizu raznolikih projektov. Band je na sceni že od začetka devetdesetih let in ustvarja mešanico rocka, soula, popa, bluesa, funka in afro-kubanskih ritmov. V predstavi z naslovom Dancing With The Sound Hobbyist bomo priča spogledovanju dveh svetov: kozmopolitskega sveta melodij, ki ga ustvarja Zita Swoon band, ter svetom giba oziroma plesa, nastalega v sodelovanju s koreografinjo Anne Tereso De Keersmaeker, ki je na koncertnem odru zasnovala nastop plesalca skupine Rosas Simona Mayerja. Dialog med dvema žanroma je vrhunski, zaznamujejo ga omarna umetnost ritma in melahnoličnost ter dinamika giba. Majhni optimistični odgovori na velika vprašanja. Zgodba o svobodi. Performans, ki razširja svoj oder do notranjih organov gledalca. Glasba, ki gleda ples.

• A dialogue between music and movement

Zita Swoon, one of the most popular Belgian bands, has shown an inexhaustible capacity for revitalization and gradually turned into a polymorphous company renamed Zita Swoon Group, which works on a range of specific projects. The band has been on the scene since the beginning of the 1990s. Their music is a fusion of rock, soul, pop, blues, funk and Afro-Cuban style. With Dancing With The Sound Hobbyist, Zita Swoon's cosmopolitan world of melodies will be seen flirting with movement or – better yet – dance, thanks to their collaboration with the visiting choreographer, Anne Teresa De Keersmaeker, who devised the performance of Simon Mayer, a dancer of the Rosas group. The dialogue emerging between the two genres is simply exquisite, refined by the intoxicating art of rhythm and melancholia together with the dynamics of movement. Small optimistic answers to big questions. A story about freedom. A performance that expands its stage up to the internal organs of the audience. Music that watches dance.

• Moje pesmi, moje sanje

Beograjska skupina Škart, ki se loteva različnih žanrov, od grafičnega dizajna do arhitekture, od poezije do provokativnih družbeno angažiranih projektov, je na Mladih levih predlani že predstavila svoja igrala za vse generacije, ki so napolnila Muzejsko ploščad Metelkova. Letos se vračajo s svojo Pesmašino oziroma strojem za poezijo, ki bo posnel vašo lastno ali pa vašo najljubšo pesem in vam predvajal najljubšo poezijo drugih ljudi. Gre za zvočno instalacijo, saj je Pesmašina mobilna in bo presenečala ter zapeljevala publiko na različnih lokacijah po Ljubljani.

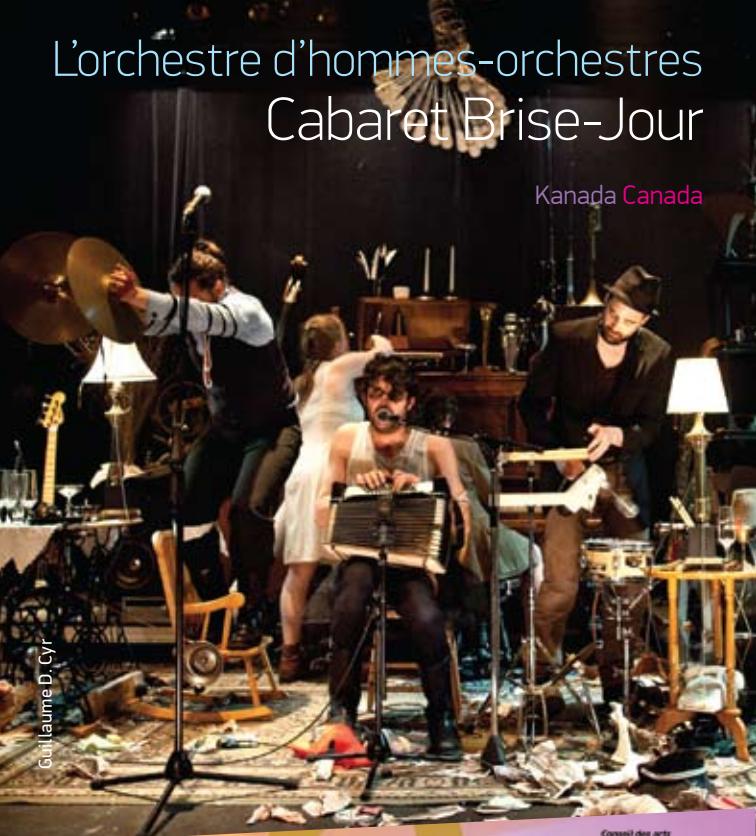

• The sound of music

The Belgrade-based group Škart plays with different genres, ranging from graphic design to architecture, from poetry to provocative socially engaged projects. Two years ago, the group introduced newly constructed playground installations for all generations at the Mladi levi festival and thus playfully covered the Metelkova museum platform. This year they're back with their poetry machine Pesmašina (Poemachine) that will record your own poem, your favourite one, or play someone else's favourite poems for you. The poetry machine is a mobile sound installation, attempting to surprise and bewitch audiences at different locations across Ljubljana.

• Sedem smrtnih grehov za tri groše

S kanadskim orkestrom osmih glasbenikov in igralcev vstopimo v časovni stroj in se znajdemo v nadrealističnem svetu kabareja. Kot da bi bili v Berlinu tik pred vojno; dekadanca, erotik, v zraku občutek prihajajoče katastrofe, podobe pa so bizarre, čudne in vznemirljive. Ta neverjetna glasbena in performerska skupina umetnikov prihaja iz Québeca in je bila ustanovljena leta 2001. Predzadnjo predstavo so posvetili glasbi Toma Waitsa, tokrat se kot potapljači na dih utaplajo v kabarejske melodije in v poezijo mojstra tega žanra, Kurta Weilla. Pred nami se na odru zvrsti vse: tragedija, drama, komedija, melodrama. Vse dobro in slabo, kar premoreta ženska duša in moško tkivo. Ničesar, kar ste videli doslej, ne boste mogli primerjati s tem, kar boste doživeli ob tej predstavi. Prepustite se in zapustite ta čas.

• Seven deadly sins for three pennies

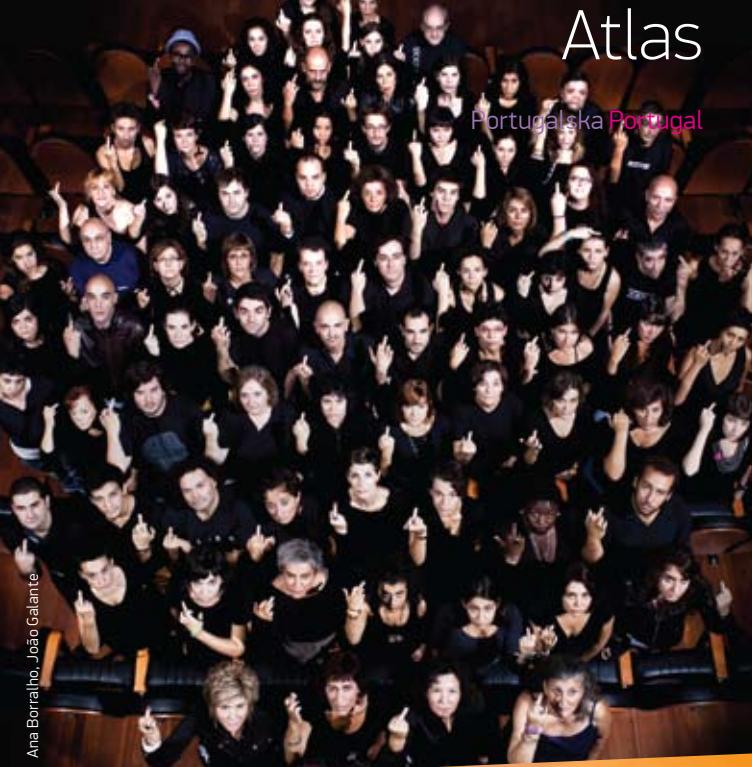

This Canadian orchestra, composed of eight musicians and actors, takes us back in time to the surrealist world of cabaret. Like in pre-war Berlin, there is decadence, eroticism, and the pending threat of aerial bombardment. Images come across as bizarre, strange and exciting. This fascinating music and performing group of artists comes from Québec and was established in 2001. Their penultimate performance was dedicated to the music of Tom Waits, whereas this time they somewhat resemble freedivers as they immerse themselves in the cabaret melodies and poetry created by the master of this genre, Kurt Weill. We can see everything appear on stage: tragedy, drama, comedy, melodrama. Everything good and bad that a woman's soul and a man's flesh are capable of. Absolutely nothing you have seen so far can compare with what you're about to experience in this performance. Go with the flow and leave time behind.

• Mi smo revolucija

Nedvomno politično gledališče. Sto ljudi na odru. Pokrajina ljudi, pravzaprav. Vsak od njih ima svoj poklic, svoje mesto v družbi, in vsak s svojim delom in individualnostjo moti neoliberalno politiko, ki jo zanima le še kapital. Množica ljudi vseh starosti in generacij predstavlja nekakšen atlas, relief socialnih vprašanj, pa tudi velikansko moč in solidarnost. Tiha revolucija. Predstavo motivira znana ideja o tem, da mora umetnost igrati aktivno vlogo v družbi. Dramaturgija dogodka je inspirirana z otroško pesmijo, ki se nikoli ne konča in v kateri je vedno več glavnih junakov. Predstava se tako začne z enim nastopajočim in konča s stotimi. Avtorja predstave, Ana Borralho & João Galante, znana portugalska umetniki, sta predstavo pripravila z lokalnimi nastopajočimi vseh generacij in profilov.

• We are the revolution

It's political theatre, no doubt about it. One hundred people on stage. Actually, it's more of a landscape of people to be precise. Each one of them has a profession, their own place in society. Their work, together with their individuality, disturbs the neoliberal political paradigm, whose only interest is capital. A crowd of people from all ages and generations constitute a kind of atlas, a pastiche of social issues, but at the same time also embody a tremendous sense of strength and solidarity. A silent revolution. This performance is motivated by the common idea that art is an active player in society. The drama of this event draws inspiration from a nursery rhyme that never ends and constantly draws in more and more characters. The performance thus starts with one person performing and ends with a hundred of them. The authors, Ana Borralho & João Galante, famous Portuguese artists, have prepared the performance in cooperation with local participants from all generations and backgrounds.

• V vmesnem prostoru med tukaj in zdaj

Solo Eden koreografirajo in performerke Mala Kline oblikuje dva svetova, ki nastaneta, ko se performer in občinstvo srečata iz oči v oči. Prvi je na odru, v sedanjoosti, tukaj in zdaj. Drugi je brezčasen, v notranjosti teles, v breznu podzavesti in spominov. Avtorica se v občutljivem nastopu, ostem kot britev, giblje med tema dvema svetovoma. Kolektivne sanjske slike spreminja v intimno, udomačenost preobrazí v divjo žival. Naseljuje raznolike značaje in čustvena stanja ter gledalce vodi proti izvirni gledališki izkušnji. Je odlična igralka, duhovita, emotivna, večplastna. Poetika predstave spodbuja domišljijo ter oblikuje celovit in perfekcionistični svet zvoka, luči, ritma in tišine ter ima neverjetno sposobnost komunikacije z gledalčevimi čutili in razumom.

• In the transitional space between here and now

The solo performance Eden by the choreographer and performer Mala Kline gives birth to two worlds, arising at the exact moment when the performer and the audience meet face to face. The first of these worlds takes place on stage, in the present time, in the here and now. The second one is timeless, inhabiting the interior of bodies, in the abyss where the subconscious and memories reside. In this sensitive performance, with the sharpness of a razor, the author moves between the two worlds. She transforms collective dreamlike images into intimacy, transforms tamed homeliness into a wild animal. She inhabits diverse characters and emotional states while guiding the audience towards an authentic theatre experience. She is a superb actress, funny, emotive, multilayered. The poetics of the performance encourages the imagination and forms a complete and perfectionist arena of sound, light, rhythm and silence, revealing a breathtaking ability of communication with the audience's senses and mind.

• Srce na dlani

Predstave sodobnega cirkusa z žongliranjem po tem duetu ne bodo nikoli več enake, so zapisali kritiki. Cirque Bang Bang sta ustanovila Elsa Guérin in Martin Palisse, ki skupaj nastopata že deset let. POST je subtilna zgodba o odnosih, o ravnotežju ljubezni, moči sovraštva, vzdržljivosti sodelovanja, vztrajnosti dveh teles, o obsedenosti. Govori nam o človeškosti, ovisnosti od sočloveka in hkrati o samoti. Ta velika virtuoza žongliranja, ki spreminjata znane dimenzijsne in nam spodbikata tla pod nogami, gledalce vodita skozi melahnolijo, občutljivost, srhljivo lepoto ter nežno melodramo. Minimalizem. Poezija. Za žogice, ki z veliko hitrostjo premikajo zrak, se včasih zdi, kot da so srce na dlani, kot skrivna in hitra pisava, polna pomenov.

• A heart on the palm of your hand

According to art critics, contemporary circus performances featuring juggling will never be the same again thanks to this duet. Cirque Bang Bang was established by Elsa Guérin and Martin Palisse, who have been performing together for ten years now. POST is a subtle narrative about relationships, about the balance of love, about the power of hate, about the enduring value of cooperation, about the persistence of two bodies, and about obsession. It simultaneously tells the story of being human, about being dependent on other human beings, and about loneliness. As they alter known dimensions and pull the ground from under our feet, these two great virtuosos of juggling guide the audience through melancholia, sensibility, uncanny beauty and soft melodrama. Minimalism. Poetry. The little juggling balls that come flying through the air with tremendous speed sometimes seem like a heart on the palm of one's hand, like a secret and fast handwriting, filled with meaning.

• Začeti na novo

Predstava Gremo vsi! je glasbeno angažirano gledališče, ki pravzaprav govori o tem, ali ostati v tej državi ali oditi. Je razmišljanje o spremembah, o izbiri med pasivnostjo in akcijo. Predstavljamо si, da je država bend in prebivalec države glasbenik ter da je selitev iz države v državo kot selitev glasbenika iz benda v bend. Če kdo odide iz skupine, je glasba potem drugačna? Kako se odločiti za politične in ekonomske migracije, če te na dom vežejo ljubezen, tovarištvo, melodija ali ritem? Predstava, polna glasbenih in performerskih veščin, ki ima karizmatičnost rock koncerta, je obvezna gledališka čitanka za mlado generacijo, ki gleda v horizont prihodnosti. Za vse generacije pravzaprav. Vsi razmišljamo prav to, kar v predstavi izreče N'toko: "Jaz hočem začet' na novo." Je možno?

• Starting over

The performance entitled Gremo vsi! (All Together Now!) is an engaged music theatre with a narrative that revolves around whether or not one should stay in Slovenia. It is a contemplation of changes, about the choice between passivity and action. Let's imagine for a second that a country is a band and that a citizen of that country is a musician, which means that moving from one country to another is like a musician moving from one band to another. Would the music be any different if someone left the band? How can you make the decision for political and economic migration, if you're tied down to your home by love, comradeship, melody and rhythm? It's a performance bursting with musical and performing skills and all the charisma of a rock concert. It's obligatory reading material for a young generation that has its eyes set on the future. However, it's meant for all generations. We are all thinking about what N'toko says out loud in the performance: "I want to start fresh." Is it possible?

• Ko Ljubljana postane pristanišče

Pred dvema letoma je koncert skupine Dječaci pregnal dež. Tokrat se težko pričakovano vračajo. Pojedimo torej še enkrat od začetka: "Liti mi nema ništa draže / nego popodne doč sa plaže / sist na kauč, poist breskvu / pogledat parove na teletekstu / pogledam dnevnik, šport i vrime / napijem se hladne vode iz spine / iščeprkam sol iz uha / pogledam u loncu šta se kuha ... Punjene paprike!" Ostra besedila, neposredna sporočila. "Dobro repaju, al su stvarno debili," piše na njihovi spletni strani. Glasbeni kritiki jih uvrščajo med najbolj kreativne hiphop izvajalce na Balkanu, vendar jih na radiu in na televiziji ne predvajajo pogosto. Saj so, kot pravijo, njihovi teksti za dlako pretrdi. Ampak niti na pamet jim ne pride "glancati sranja", da bi bili všeč glasbenim urednikom.

• When Ljubljana turns into a harbour

Two years ago the concert to be played by the band Dječaci was washed away as the rain came pouring down. Great expectations therefore accompany their forthcoming return. So let's start from the beginning once again: "There's nothing I dig more in the summer bloom / Than coming back from the beach in the afternoon / On the sofa I perch and that peach I nibble / Then check out them lucky pairs as I dribble / I sit through the news, the sports and the weather / While with tap water I quench my thirst altogether / The dirt called my earwax I thoroughly clean / And check out what's cooking in the pot full of steam ... Stuffed peppers!" Sharp lyrics, direct messages. Their website says: "They rap well, but they're retards." The critics place them amongst the most creative hip hop groups in the Balkan region, but they are not all that often played on the radio as one might expect, since – as they note themselves – their lyrics are slightly too rough. However, they wouldn't even consider "polishing shit," just so that the editors might approve.

• Frekvanca zla

Leta 1994 je bilo v Ruandi z mačetami in palicami ubitih več kot milijon Tutsijev. Tamkajšnja radijska postaja RTLM je s svojim hujšaškim programom poslušalce na sovraštvo in umore pripravljala že mesece prej. Med pop glasbo, športnimi prenosmi in pristranskimi poročili so trije ekstremistični Hutuj in voditelj italijansko-belgijskega rodu hladnokrvno pozivali k sovraštvu in klanju. Dokumentaristična predstava Hate Radio je natančna rekonstrukcija tega radia; neprepustno zaprt v klinično čist studio, v katerem so vsi dobre volje, zunaj pa kri in bolečina nedolžnih ljudi. Kako deluje rasizem? Kakšna je vloga medije? Kako lahko ljudi prepicamo, da postanejo hladnokrvni morilci? Švicarsko-nemška skupina The International Institute of Political Murder je bila ustanovljena leta 2007 in se ukvarja z različnimi umetniškimi žanri ter z rekonstrukcijo zgodovinskih dogodkov. V eni od predstav so tako obnovili zadnje ure Elene in Nicolaeja Ceaușescu, letos pa v Moskvi s projektom The Moscow Trials sprožili debato med zagovorniki in nasprotvnikami vere, inspirirano s procesom o Pussy Riots.

• The frequency of evil

In 1994, in Rwanda, more than a million Tutsis were slaughtered with machetes and sharpened sticks. The local radio station RTLM incited listeners to hate and kill months before the actual events started taking place. In between pop music, sport broadcasts, and biased news, three extremist Hutus and a news presenter of Italian-Belgian descent, cold-bloodedly called for hate and slaughter. The documentary performance Hate Radio is a precise reconstruction of this same radio. In an airtight and sterilized studio, everybody is in an excellent mood, but the outside world is filled with blood and the pain of the innocent. How does racism work? What's the role of the media in this respect? How can people be convinced to become murderers? The Swiss-German group, The International Institute of Political Murder, was founded in 2007 and focuses on various artistic genres and a reconstruction of historical events. In one of their performances, they staged the final hours of Elena and Nicolae Ceaușescu, whereas their project The Moscow Trials – inspired by the Pussy Riot trial – triggered a debate this year in Moscow between anti-religious and pro-religious proponents.

• Proces

Podnaslov predstave The Curators' Piece je Proces proti umetnosti, v njej izbrani in uglelni umetniški kuratorji nastopajo kot performerji. Avtorici projekta sta gledališka režiserka Tea Tupajić in Petra Zanki, ki je svoje gledališko znanje izpopolnjevala na Sorbonne Nouvelle v Parizu. Akterji na odru so pravzaprav tisti, ki oblikujejo pokrajino sodobne uprizoritvene umetnosti. Kuratorji so tudi sooblikovalci predstave in njeni koproducenti. Vprašanje, na katere skuša predstava odgovoriti, je večno aktualno in zapleteno: Ali lahko umetnost vpliva na sodobno družbo? Imajo posamezniki, ki nastopajo, odgovor na to vprašanje? Kako umetnosti vrnili pomembnost? Na odru se pred nami odvijata fikcija in realnost; proces proti in za umetnost ter dileme in razmišljanja njenih protagonistov.

• A trial

The performance The Curators' Piece, subtitled A trial against art, puts the selected eminent artistic curators in the shoes of performers. The authors of the project are the theatre director Tea Tupajić and Petra Zanki, who perfected her knowledge of theatre at the Sorbonne Nouvelle in Paris. The personas on stage are actually the ones who mould the landscape of contemporary performing arts. The curators are also co-creators of the performance and its producers. The question that this performance attempts to answer is one of eternal relevance and complexity, namely: Can art influence contemporary society? Will the performing individuals provide us with an answer to these questions? How can art be once again perceived as a socially relevant category? On stage, we see fiction and reality take place in front of our eyes; a trial for and against art with the accompanying dilemmas and thoughts of its protagonists.

• Pokrajina giba

Alžirsko-francoska koreografinja in plesalka Nacera Belaza se po nekaj letih znova vrača na Mlade leve, k občinstvu, ki se je vedno zaljubljalo v njene predstave. V duetu Le Cri (Krik) ostaja zvesta svoji minimalistični poetiki, ki nekje med gibom in mirovanjem, tišino ter zvokom, svetlobo in temo ustvarja čudežno meditativno moč, ki hipnotično vpliva na gledalca. Koreografinja, ki v svojih predstavah največkrat nastopa s svojo sestro Dalilo, je zapisala, da bi ta predstava morala biti prva, gibanje v njej iz intime priplava na površje, vse dokler ne izgine. To je pot vsake njene koreografije, morda pa se v tej zgodbi ne razvija, miruje, se vrača na izhodišče in se konča s krikom. Pred nami na odru se v izjemno natancnem ritmu razvija senzibilna pokrajina transa in spominov, v kateri čas in prostor sobivata v skorajda znanstveni natancnosti.

• A landscape of movement

After a few years' break, the Algerian-French choreographer and dancer Nacera Belaza once again returns to the Mladi levi festival, back to an audience that has time and time again fallen in love with her performances. She stays true to her minimalist poetics in the duet Le Cri (Scream), arising somewhere between movement and stillness, between silence and sound, between light and dark, where she creates magic meditative power that has a hypnotic effect on the spectator. The choreographer who appears in her own performances, mostly with her sister Dalila, once wrote that this performance should be the first, since it lures movement from the depths of intimacy to the surface, until it finally vanishes. This is the path pursued in all her choreography, but perhaps in this one the story doesn't progress as much as just stands still, repeatedly returning back to point zero and ending with a scream. What we see unfold in front of us on stage in a rhythm of exceptional precision is a subtle landscape of trance and memories, where time and space coexist in almost scientific exactness.

• Potlačiti preteklost

Predstave Oliverja Frljića, ki jih je delal po bivših jugoslovanskih republikah, vedno odpirajo najbolj boleče zgodbe, ki jih želi nek narod pozabiti ali o njih vsaj molčati. Mrzim istinu! je intimna biografsko dokumentaristična predstava, saj gre za travmatično zgodbo o režiserjevi družini. Zdi se, kot da je občinstvo prišlo na obisk in je sedaj priča razčiščevanju družinske preteklosti. Režiser dramaturški lok napenja s pomočjo spominov, dokumentov, pričevanj ... Rašomonško pa vsak član družine pozna svojo različico iste zgodbe. Igra v igri. Kaj se je zares zgodilo? Je mama res ves čas tepla sina? Ga je res imela raje kot njegovo sestro? Kaj je fikcija in kaj je laž? Je treba resnico sovražiti? Ali je zgodovina neke družinske sage pravzaprav konstrukt, tako kot vsaka druga zgodovina?

• Repressing the past

The performances created by Oliver Frljić in the former states of Yugoslavia always reveal the most painful of stories – stories that a nation would normally try to forget, or at least try to keep silent. Mrzim istinu! is an intimate biographic documentary performance, narrating a traumatic story about the director's family. It appears as if the audience has only come for a visit, only to bear witness to a family past emerging from the closet. The director stretches the dramatic arc with the help of memories, documents, testimonies... However, in a rather Rashomon manner, each family member seems to put forward his or her own version of the same story. A play inside a play. What really happened in the end? Is it true that the mother was beating her son repeatedly? Did she really love him more than she loved his sister? What qualifies as fiction here and what is an outright lie? Should one perhaps hate the truth? Is the history of a family actually nothing but a construct, like any other history?

• Ljubezen na prvi zvok

Predstava, v katerih nastopa pet karizmatičnih performerjev, je kot sanje Tristiana Tzare, v katerih je srečal Busterja Keatona in se ni mogel načuditi svojim čcem. Dadaizem je namreč sij, ki lebdi nad odrom in nad igralci, in burleska je intonacija gibanja misli predstave. Tragedija in komedija. Dramaturgija se v predstavi s časom pojgrava kot delivec kart v igralnici, saj je odrska zgodba sestavljena iz več kot sto gledaliških prizorov, skečev, slik. Na odru se na nadrealističen način spogledata glasba in gledališče, predstava z izjemno natančnostjo sledi partituri Répertoire nemško-argentinskega skladatelja Mauricia Kagela, ki jo je ustvaril leta 1970. Performerji jo izvajajo na nenavadne inštrumente in pred nami oblikujejo utopičen svet, v katerem spoznamo nove dimenzije, naša čutila in um pa se hkrati začudeno zabavajo.

• Love at first sound

This performance, with five charismatic performers, resembles the dream of Tristan Tzara when he meets Buster Keaton and is left nothing short of awestruck. Dadaism is the glow that floats over the stage and the performers. It is a burlesque, it is the intonation induced by thoughts of the performance and their movement. Both tragedy and comedy. The dramaturgy in the performance plays with time like a card dealer in a casino. The stage narrative is composed of more than a hundred theatre scenes, skits, and images. Music and theatre flirt on stage in a surrealist spirit, while the performance demonstrates extreme precision in following the score Répertoire by the German-Argentinian composer Mauricio Kagel, who created it in 1970. The performers play on unusual instruments and thus give rise to a utopian world before our very eyes, where we encounter new dimensions while our senses and mind amuse themselves in astonishment.

• Na obrobju in v centru

Projekte islandskega kolektiva Kviss búmm bang, ki gostuje v Ljubljani v okviru evropskega projekta Global City – Local City, bi lahko označili za dokumentaristično in participatorno gledališče, saj jih običajno postavi v mestu, kjer gostuje. Z ironičnim pristopom v svojih delih gledalcu velikokrat odpre pogled iz druge perspektive. V Ljubljani in Mariboru bodo islandske umetnice preživеле in raziskovale več kot mesec dni in predstavile delo GALA – Celebration of Minorities, ki se ukvarja z vprašanjem skupin in manjšin v najširšem pomenu besede. Kdaj skupina postane manjšina? Kaj lahko definiramo kot "manjšino" in kaj kot "normalno"? Kdo je tisti, ki to definira? Kviss búmm bang bo k sodelovanju povabil različne skupine in skozi participatori proces pogledal pod površino vsakdanjika. Z duhovitim in hudomušnim sloganom bodo umetnice v okviru navidezno "normalnega" soočale norme nevidno dominantnega in manjšinskega v družbi.

• At the periphery and in the centre

The Icelandic collective Kviss búmm bang, currently in residence in Ljubljana under the framework of the European project Global City – Local City, stages what could be defined as documentary and participatory theatre, since their projects are normally produced in the city they're being hosted in. The ironic approach they use in their work often allows the spectator to see things from another perspective. The Icelandic artists will be staying in Maribor and Ljubljana for more than a month to do research and to present their work GALA – Celebration of Minorities, which tackles the issue of minorities in the broadest sense of the term. Under what circumstances does a group become a minority? What can be defined as a "minority" and what is "normal"? Who is the subject, doing the defining? Kviss búmm bang will invite various groups to cooperate and thus establish a participatory process in order to look under the surface of everyday life. Their funny and roguish style will accompany them in the arena of the seemingly "normal", where they will confront the norms of the silent dominant structures on one hand, and the minority structures in society on the other.

Cynthia Hopkins je znana ameriška skladateljica, pevka in gledališka umetnica. Je izjemna solo glasbenica in ustanoviteljica skupine Gloria Deluxe, ki ustvarja folk, rock, blues, country in kabaretno glasbo. Nastopila je kot predizvajalka glasbenim legendam, kot sta David Byrne in Patti Smith. Kritiki njen glas opisujejo kot boleči instrument, ki spominja na Patsy Cline in Billie Holiday. V svojem delu raziskuje inovativne oblike komunikacije, združuje glasbo, tekst, scenografijo in video v fantastična dejstva in resnično fikcijo.

Cynthia Hopkins is a famous American composer, singer and theatre artist. She is a remarkable solo musician and founder of the Gloria Deluxe group, which makes folk, rock, blues, country and cabaret music. She has opened for legendary musicians such as David Byrne and Patti Smith. Critics have described her voice as a painful instrument that reminds one of Patsy Cline and Billie Holiday. Gre za zvočni performans glasu, ki prehaja med neskončno ponavljajočim se refrenom melodije, ki se gradi in razpada v sozvočju s telesnimi zvoki, med diktafonskimi posnetki in njihovim množenjem, med odmevi v prostoru in točko izdiha.

This is a sound performance of a voice that transcends between the infinitely repetitive melodic refrain, that comes in and out of existence in harmony with body sounds, between the voice recorder tapes and their multiplication, between echoes in space and the point of exhalation.

(Ekonomsko) pozicioniranje umetnika v družbi The (economic) position of the artist in a society

posvet v sodelovanju s
7. trienalom sodobne umetnosti v Sloveniji – U3 public debate in collaboration with
7th Triennial of Contemporary Art in Slovenia – U3

Razprava bo odprla prostor za razmislek o položaju, ki ga v družbi zaseda umetnik. To pozicijo bomo osvetlili iz več zornih kotov, predvsem pa bomo govorili o ekonomskih razmerah ustvarjanja. Kako svoj ekonomski položaj razume umetnik in kako ga razume družba? Kako se ta vprašanja odražajo v ustvarjenih vsebinah in kako lahko vplivajo na dejanski ekonomski položaj kreativnega subjekta v današnji družbi? V kakšnih razmerah dela umetnik danes in v kakšnih bo ustvarjal v prihodnosti? Na kakšne načine umetniki ustvarjajo alternative obstoječim administrativnim in producjskim razmeram za sodobno umetnost? Ali umetniki soustvarjajo ekonomijo umetniškega ustvarjanja ali le skušajo preživeti v danih okoliščinah?

This debate will allow participants to contemplate the position of the artist in a society. The issue will be explored from different angles, with a particular emphasis on the economic conditions of the creative process. How exactly does an artist understand his economic situation and how is it seen by society? In what way do these questions permeate the content that is created and how can they influence the actual economic position of a creative subject within contemporary society? In what kind of conditions do artists currently work and what kind of conditions await them in the future? In what manner do artists form alternatives to the existing administrative and production conditions for contemporary art? Are artists co-creating the economy of artistic creation or are they merely trying to survive in the given circumstances?

Postaja Tabor Tabor station

23. 8.–1. 9. (z izjemo with the exception of 24. 8.)
od 17.00 do 19.00 • from 5 pm to 7 pm park Tabor

V času festivala bo v parku Tabor dve ure na dan delovala Postaja Tabor, kjer se bodo srečevali in kramljali umetniki in Taborjanji. Iz drevesnih krošenj se bo razlegala predvsem glasba – za vsak dan bo narejena posebna glasbena oprema, ki bo vsebinsko izhajala iz festivalskega programa tistega dne. Hkrati bo po parku posejanih več individualnih zvočnih postaj, kjer bodo poslušalci prek slušalk ob limonadi in v udobnem vzdružju lahko prisluhnili intervjujem z ustvarjalci festivala, mnenjem in zgodbam Taborjanov ter posebnim edicijam iz sklopa Moje ulice.

During the course of the festival, the new Tabor station will emerge and function for two hours every day in Tabor Park, thus allowing artists and local residents to meet and chat. We'll be hearing music from the tree tops – specific sound equipment will be made available for each separate day, depending on the festival programme. On top of that, several sound stations will be scattered across the park, where listeners will be able to put their headphones on, sip lemonade and enjoy the cosy atmosphere while listening to interviews with festival team members, hear stories and opinions by local residents and find out more about special editions from the My Street initiative.

intervju, pogovor interview, conversation

V predstavi z naslovom Hate Radio švicarsko-nemške skupine The International Institute of Political Murder Diogène igra vlogo Kantana Habimane. Z njim se bomo pogovarjali o genocidu nad Tutsiji v Ruandi in hkrati razkrili tudi njegove spomine v povezavi z umetnostjo. Diogène je bil kot najstnik član uporniške vojske v Ruandi in je tudi pisal o genocidu.

Diogène plays Kantano Habimana in the performance of the Swiss-German group International Institute of Political Murder entitled Hate Radio. The conversation will focus on the genocide against the Tutsi in Rwanda and will reveal Diogène's personal memories with regard to art and his teenage years in the Rwanda rebel army. Diogène has also written a piece about the genocide.

Intervju in pogovor bosta potekala v angleškem jeziku.

The interview and conversation will be in English.
