FESTIVAL DRUGAJANJE

2016

Svet, v katerem živimo, je čas silovitih nasprotij in neenakosti. Razvoju tehnologij in globalizaciji žal ni sledil razvoj družbenih procesov povezovanja, razumevanja in solidarnosti. Ravno nasprotno. Vse več je neenakosti, nestrpnosti in sovražnosti; lahko govorimo o krizi družbene zavesti in razumevanja sveta.

Pristajanje na trenutno stanje bi bil usodni poraz in resna grožnja svetovnemu sožitju tako narodov kot družbenih razredov. Zato se je treba odzivati na različne načine, saj le iskanje pravičnejšega sveta lahko privede do dostenjnega življenja vseh ljudi. Šola ima pri tem pomembno vlogo: izobražuje, vzgaja, včasih bolj, včasih manj. II. gimnazija Maribor to počenja na več načinov, pri čemer je seznanjanje z drugačnimi načini sprejemanja vrednot in pogledov pomembna usmeritev šole. Zato tudi prirejamo festival Drugajanje s predstavami, ki nas prisilijo v razmišljjanje o sebi in drugih. Letošnji festival se odziva na trenutno stanje s predstavami, ki poskušajo poiskati poti v drugačno prihodnost.

Verjamem, da bo s tem prispeval h kritičnemu pogledu na današnji svet in vzbudil razmišljanja ter iskanje rešitev drugačne prihodnosti.

Ours is a world of profound contrasts and inequalities. Unfortunately, developments in technology and globalization have not been accompanied by corresponding currents of understanding, openness and solidarity. To the contrary. Misery, intolerance and hostility are on the rise; we may speak of a global crisis of social consciousness and existential understanding.

Settling for the current state would be a grave defeat, a serious threat to the harmonious coexistence of nations and social classes alike. We must, then, react to the best of our abilities, since only a quest for a just society can result in a dignified life for everyone. Education plays a vital role in this process: broadening the horizons of our youth, opening up new perspectives, sometimes successfully, sometimes less. The Second Gymnasium Maribor is in various ways committed to the illumination of different views and values and their understanding. This is also why we co-organize the Festival Drugajanje, which presents performances that compel us to rethink ourselves and others. This year's festival replies to the current reality with works striving to discover roads to alternative, gentler futures. I believe the festival will contribute its share to the fostering of a critical perspective on today's state of the world, encouraging discussion and the search for solutions for a better tomorrow.

II. GIMNAZIJA MARIBOR

Politične krize današnjega sveta so oglušujejoče in ne ostajajo več za mejami naših držav in regij. Navsezadnje je tudi Maribor le nekaj deset kilometrov oddaljen od bodeče žice in dijaki se še predobro zavedajo negotove prihodnosti, ki jo deloma povzroča prav »izpelost« sedanje politične ureditve. Kateri so torej tereni upora, boja ali celo sploh razumevanja današnje situacije in prihodnosti? Letošnji nabor umetnikov Drugajanja je v dialogu z misljijo, da je osebno politično. Že od šestdesetih let, od drugega vala feminismata in študentskih gibanj, vemo, da je tudi zasebno politično, da so ravno najintimnejše, osebne odločitve tiste, ki obenem reflektirajo globalno politično in ga obenem soustvarjajo. Tako je na primer Mark Požlep prepotoval domove ostarelih po bivši skupni državi, da bi pogledal v oči naši prihodnosti, Deborah Pearson skozi zgodovino Madžarske, skozi film, skozi svojo osebno zgodovino išče pot do sedanosti in prihodnosti, Beton Ltd. se odreče velikim zgodbam in se odpravi na teren lastne intime, lastne »komune«, kot da so resnične spremembe in spoznanja možna le v mikrookoljih. Ekipa umetnikov Balkan Kavkaz pa bo poskušala požgečkat nevralgicne točke Maribora z različnimi intervencijami. Včasih so ravno majhne spremembe ali mikro »motnje« vsakdana tiste, ki sprožijo širše razmisleke in akcije in vedno znova so ravno naše intimne odločitve tiste, ki premaknejo statičnost ustaljenih vzorcev in nemogočega.

The political crises of contemporary day are deafening and no longer confined to the borders of nations or regions. After all, Maribor, too, is but a few dozen kilometers removed from barbed wire, and its students well aware of the uncertainties of the future, in part caused by the exhausted nature of our current political order. Which, then, are the terrains of resistance, struggle, or at least genuine understanding of our present situation and trajectory?

This year's Festival Druganje artists engage in dialogue with the notion that the personal is inherently political. From the sixties onward, with second-wave feminism and the powerful student movements, we've come to understand that the private is indeed political, that the most intimate, most personal decisions are those that at once reflect the global political state and co-create it. In this manner, Mark Požlep travels the retirement homes of our ex-common Yugoslavian state to look our future in the eyes, Deborah Pearson searches for a path to the current and coming through the history of Hungary, through film and her own personal past, Beton Ltd. renounce great stories and venture into the realm of their own intimacy, their own »commune«, probing if true change and understanding may perhaps indeed arise only from micro-environments. In the meanwhile, the Balkan Kavkaz artist collective will tickle Maribor's nevralgic points with their various interventions. Sometimes, it is precisely the tiny changes, minute disturbances of the everyday that catalyze broader perspectives and action, with our collective intimate decisions, time and again, being what ultimately shatters the stasis of prevalent patterns and impossible boundaries.

Kritička šola Drugajanja in Nagiba

Drugajanje & Nagib School of Criticism

Nagib, sezona sodobne uprizoritvene umetnosti v Narodnem domu, in festival Drugajanje, festival sodobne uprizoritvene umetnosti, ki poteka v sodelovanju z II. gimnazijo Maribor, razpisujeta skupno kritičko šolo. Vanjo vabimo mlade, ki jih zanimajo analiziranje, vrednotenje, kritično »branje« in refleksija sodobne scenske umetnosti. Program bo organiziran kot abonma, ki bo preplet predstav Drugajanja, Nagiba in še nekaterih drugih izbranih predstav v Ljubljani. Sodelujoči mentorji bodo delovali kot sogovorniki mladim pri razmisleku o videnem in obenem tudi kot mentorji pri kritičkem vrednotenju. Srečanja bodo potekala v različnih formatih (radijske oddaje, pogovori z umetniki, pisanje besedil za blog ali spletne strani vključenih organizacij ...).

Mentorji bodo preizkušeni uredniki, kritiki in teoretiki, ki trenutno delujejo v različnih referenčnih medijih: Kaja Kraner, Alja Lobnik, Katja Kosi, Maja Megla, Rok Vevar, Nenad Jelesijević ... V dogovoru z udeleženci bo mogoče k sodelovanju naknadno povabiti še druge mentorje ali goste.

Udeležba je brezplačna

Nagib, the season of contemporary performing arts in the Narodni Dom cultural centre, and Festival Drugajanje in cooperation with Second Gymnasium Maribor, announce a call for applications to their joint School of Criticism. We welcome the participation of youth interested in the analysis, valuation, critical »reading« and reflection of contemporary stage arts. The programme will be organized as a season ticket featuring performances from Festival Drugajanje and Nagib, as well as selected events in Ljubljana. Participating mentors will act as conversation partners for the young critics in their reflections on perceived reality, as well as mentoring them in the skills of critical evaluation. Their meetings will take place in different formats (radio shows, talks with artists, writing pieces for blogs or websites of cooperating organizations ...). The School of Criticism's mentors are seasoned editors, critics and theoreticians working across a range of reference media: Kaja Kraner, Alja Lobnik, Katja Kosi, Maja Megla, Rok Vevar, Nenad Jelesijević ... In agreement with the participants, we are open to inviting additional mentors or guests.

Pred dvema letoma se je prvenstveno vizualni umetnik Mark Požlep odpravil na na prvi pogled čudaško turnejo: s pianistom Igorjem Feketijo sta obiskala vrsto domov za ostarele po državah bivše Jugoslavije. Tam sta upokojencem odpela venček jugoslovanskih glasbenih uspešnic iz petdesetih in šestdesetih let.

Mark je Bolj čudno od raja najprej predstavil galerijsko in za to prejel tudi nagrado skupine OHO 2016, nato pa je projekt še ugledaljščil.

Bolj čudno od raja je dokumentarni performans, nekaj med koncertom, potopisom in druženjem. Govori o staranju, o skupnih in ločenih usodah, o ponovnem vzpostavljanju razrušenih odnosov in podrtih skupnosti. Govori o generaciji, ki je v skupni državi preživel skoraj vse življenje, in tisti, ki jo je okusila zgolj v rani mladosti. O človeku in njegovi večni želji po spremembah, o neverjetni zmožnosti grajenja in uničenja. Govori o Marku in o vseh nas.

Bolj čudno od raja.

Predstavi sledi pogovor z ustvarjalcema The performance is followed by a talk with the authors.

Two years ago, the chiefly visual artist Mark Požlep embarked on what might, at first glance, seem like a rather quaint tour: alongside pianist Igor Feketija they visited a number of retirement homes across the countries of former Yugoslavia. There, they performed for the elderly a set of Yugoslavian music hits from the fifties and sixties of the past century.

Mark first presented Stranger than Paradise in gallery form, for which he received the OHO Group Award in 2016, and is now adapting the project for theatre.

Stranger than Paradise is a documentary performance, something between a concert, a travelogue and a friendly gathering. It speaks of aging, of common and separate fates, of the reestablishment of broken relationships and shattered communities. It speaks of a generation that lived out nearly their entire lives in the former common socialist state, and of one that only experienced it in its greenest youth. It speaks of man and his eternal longing for change, his incredible capacity for creation and destruction. It speaks of Marko as a person, and each one of us as a human being. Stranger than Paradise

Avtorsko poetiko kolektiva Beton Ltd. (Katarina Stegnar, Branko Jordan, Primož Bezjak) zaznamuje iskanje osebnih vstopov v globalna vprašanja – njihova pozicija je pogosto performerska –, iskanje novih, hibridnih formatov uprizarjanja in mojstrsko obvladovanje uprizoritvenih tehnik. Ich kann nicht anders je njihova peta predstava, kjer nas kontrapunkt med popolno intimo in odzveni globalnih dogodkov spomni na tezo Srečka Horvata, da je prava revolucija vedno revolucija vsega, vseh družbenih odnosov, tudi najbolj intimnih.

Svet okoli nas je nasičen z dogajanjem, nasičen s spremembami, in če obstaja konstanta, je to trenutno negotovost. Slutimo spremembe, a kakšne bodo, se še ne izrisuje jasno. Ena izmed možnih strategij boja proti oglušujoči glasnosti sveta, je umik v svoj svet. Ne predaja, ampak obramba lastnega intimnega teritorija pred zunanjim svetom. Umik v intimo, kjer je svoboda možna in kjer je utopija – zdaj.

The creative poetics of group Beton Ltd. (Katarina Stegnar, Branko Jordan, Primož Bezjak) is marked by a search for personal interventions into global issues – their position is often one of performers –, the exploration of new, hybrid performing arts formats and mastery over a range of techniques. Ich kann nicht anders is their fifth performance, whose counterpoint between complete intimacy and echoes of global events plays reminiscence to the thesis of Srećko Horvat that a true revolution is always a revolution of everything, the complete range of social relationships, even those most intimate.

The world all around is overwhelmed with happening, saturated with change. If a single constant can be identified, it is uncertainty. We sense new currents yet their trajectory remains obscure. One possible strategy to combat the deafening noise of the world is a retreat into the inner sanctum. Not surrender, but the defense of one's own intimate realm from the outside bedlam. A repositioning into intimacy, where freedom is possible and utopia is – now.

23. oktobra 1956 se je s študentskimi demonstracijami začela revolucija na Madžarskem, kot spontan upor proti komunistični vladi in sovjetskim silam. Mnogi so v revoluciji izgubili življenje, več kot 200.000 pa jih je emigriralo v tujino, med njimi tudi dedek Deborah Pearson, igralec v filmski komediji, obenem tudi politični satiri, o madžarski nogometni reprezentanci, ki naj bi bil sicer premierno predvajan prav na ta dan ... dan, ko so v Budimpešto vdrlji sovjetski tanki.

History History History (Zgodovina – Zgodovina – Zgodovina) je večplastno, smešno in obenem bridko potovanje, v katerem globalni trenutek trči z osebno zgodovino. Pearsonova se tako osredotoči na nogometno farso oziroma na prodajalca pisal, ki ga po spletu nesrečnih okoliščin zamenjajo z nogometnim superzvezdnikom Ferencem Puskášem, celo tako zelo, da ga kot nogometnika kupi diktator (tajkun) iz Južne Amerike ... Vendar film skriva veliko več. Z briljantnim prepletanjem realnosti in iluzije Paersonova v vlogi »kommentatorke« osvetljuje to subverzivno komedijo, kot odziv na tiranijo diktature, navezane na težave potomca diaspore, ki ga težijo zgodovina, pritisk časa, družinske zgodbe, zadrega z jezikom. Madžarska nogometna komedija iz leta 1956 tlakuje zgodbo pisatelju, ki izgubi ime, igralcu, ki izgubi glas, in državi, ki izgubi revolucijo.

Predstavi sledi pogovor z ustvarjalko The performance is followed by a talk with the author.

On 23 October 1956, revolution broke out in Hungary with student demonstrations, as a spontaneous rise against the communist government and Soviet hegemony. Many perished during the following insurrection, over 200,000 emigrated, among them the grandfather of Deborah Pearson; an actor appearing in a film comedy / political satire about the Hungarian national football team which was incidentally to be premiered on that very day ... the day Soviet tanks rolled into Budapest.

History History History is a nuanced, comical yet painful tale in which global momentum collides with personal history. Pearson builds upon the film farce featuring a simple pen peddler who is, due to a series of outlandish coincidences, mistaken for the football superstar Ferenc Puskáš, to a degree so extreme he is contracted to play for a South American dictator (tycoon). There's more to the funny piece than meets the eye, though. Through a brilliant interplay of reality and illusion, Pearson illuminates the subversive piece as a »commentator« exploring its satirizing of the tyranny of dictatorship, the struggles of a diaspora descended weighed down by history, the spirit of the times, by familial tragedy and linguistic embarrassment. A Hungarian football comedy from 1956 subliminally weaving the story of a writer who loses his name, an actor who loses his voice, a nation that loses its revolution.

KAVKAZ BALKAN Maribor

Ulični kolektiv Kavkaz Balkan je vzniknil iz projekta Kavkaz Balkan Express, platforme za razmislek, inspiracijo in sodelovanje v kulturnem sektorju Južnega Kavkaza in Balkana. Tako Balkan kot Južni Kavkaz se srečujeta z izvivi, pogojenimi s kulturno-zgodovinsko določenim okvirom ter tranzicijo iz socializma v hibridno demokracijo in tržno ekonomijo. Ta je vzrok za nenehne spremembe in razočaranja v družbenem kontekstu ter tako nastalo gojišče etičnih konfliktov.

V projektu so združeni štirje vizualni umetniki: Vahe Budumyan iz Armenije, Vilmos Koter iz Romunije, Tanja Radež iz Slovenije in Giorgi Khasaia iz Gruzije. Skupaj so že opravili rezidence v Gruziji, Armeniji in Romuniji ter tudi v Ljubljani; zdaj so na rezidenčnem gostovanju v Mariboru. Razvili so različne taktike intervencij v mesto, ki temelji na njihovi skupni izkušnji sobivanja in njihovih lastnih umetniških izrazih. Tako bodo po rezidenci v Mariboru pripravili serijo umetniških intervencij v prostor, ki se nanašajo na tukajšnjo problematiko.

KUD TRIOLA

The street collective Kavkaz Balkan sprang from the project Kavkaz Balkan Express, a platform for inspiration, contemplation and participation within the cultural sector of South Caucasus and the Balkans. Both these regions face challenges conditioned by a particular cultural-historic framework and their transition from old school socialism into hybrid democracy and market economy. The latter is cause for constant confusion and disappointment in the social context, and a breeding grounds for ethical conflicts. The project unites four visual artists: Vahe Budumyan from Armenia, Vilmos Kotter from Romania, Tanja Radež from Slovenia and Giorgi Khasaia from Georgia. Together, they've already stayed in residence in Georgia, Armenia, Romania and also Ljubljana; Maribor is now their current artistic HQ. The group have developed various techniques of urban intervention, based on their shared experience of co-existing and their individual artistic expressions. Thus, having spent their time in Maribor, they will prepare a series of spatial interventions specific to the issues they identify.

Od leta 2012 je festival Drugajanje vpet v mrežo Festivals in transition, mrežo trinajstih festivalov, ki si trenutno v okviru projekta Urban Heat prizadeva z umetniškimi raziskovanji proučevati razmerja med mestom in umetnostjo ter nevidnimi skupnostmi v mestih. Letos v okviru festivala poteka t. i. laboratorij za umetnike; tema laboratorija je Maribor in preživetveni narativi – socioekonomske strukture moči.

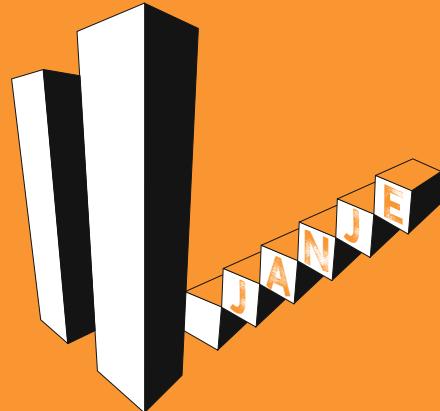

Since 2012, Festival Drugajanje has been part of the network Festivals in Transition, a cooperation between thirteen festivals that, within the framework of their Urban Heat project, strive to artistically explore and examine relationships between the arts, the city and its invisible communities. This year, the festival hosts the so-called artist laboratory, which focuses on Maribor and on narratives of survival – socioeconomic structures of power.
